

To the FCC Chairperson:

This is outrageous! The FCC and FEC must uphold the laws and not allow Sinclair to force partisan programming on public airwaves. Stolen Honor should not be shown on broadcast TV, and Sinclair should not have its license renewed if they pursue this action.

I also urge to to look anew at media consolidation which breeds this type of problem.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy. Instead of something produced at "News Central" far away, it's more important that we see real people from our own communities and more substantive news about issues that matter.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
